

FAMILY VISIONING FOR COUPLES

Generations Christian Education will be hosting a Family Visioning Workshop in partnership with Family First Foundation on Saturday 20th May 2017. This is a 3-hour workshop which provides couples the opportunity to think about, talk about, and articulate their desired state for their family.

Why a Family Vision?

The greatest challenge of parents today is how to prepare their children to exercise their freedom responsibly and to rise above the relentless pressure from the counter productive forces they face in teenage and adult life.

A family vision that is shared and lived by every member of the family is a very effective process for deploying a strong value system that children carry with them through adult life. It builds a strong bond between the spouses, between parents and children and among the siblings. It is a big aid for parents to understand each of their children better and to exercise decisive parent leadership. It shows the children how they can shape their future purposefully with optimism. It brings about long-term family unity, transcending day-to-day obstacles and setbacks, and even unresolved baggage of the past. It serves as a guide for parents to model day-to-day the life they aspire for their children.

The Workshop

This highly- participative workshop guides the couples through a four-step process where they:

- 1) Understand the concept of visioning;
- 2) Proactively define and discuss their desired state in terms of themselves as a couple, as parents, as a family, as parents in relation to their children, in relation to other members of the extended family, etc.;
- 3) Assess where they are today in relation to where they want to be, and develop creative ways to address the gaps between where they are and where they want to be; and,
- 4) Learn the “do’s and don’ts” of how to put their vision to life with their children.

The Workshop Parts

Part I: Introduction to Visioning

Film Showing on the Concept of Vision

Lecture on definition of Family Vision, Importance of Vision, and Characteristics of Good Vision

Part II: Dreamstorming aided by a set of questions that guide them to identify the ideals that they want their family to attain.

- A. As Parents
- B. As a Family

Part III: Action Planning

Participants are taken through a simple 3-step process that will guide them to bridge the gap between current reality and the ideals they want to attain as a family.

Part IV: Bringing the Vision to life with Your Family

Participants are given the key principles and specific “how to” tips for engaging the hearts and minds of their children and building full commitment to their family vision and action plan. The concepts and principles in the workshop are put to life through the candid sharing of the unique experiences of the lead couple and previous workshop participants.
